

Daily Racing Form

VOL. VII. NO. 281.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1901.

PRICE 5 CENTS

GREAT STAKE ENTRIES.

The seven Saratoga stakes that closed November 11, received a total of 801 entries a gain of 298 over last year, the comparative showing being as follows:

	1902	1901
United Hotel Stakes, 2-year-olds, 5 1-2 furlongs	174	101
Grand Union Hotel Stakes, 2-year-olds, 3-4 mile	172	101
Flash Stakes, 2-year-olds, 5 1/2 furlongs	166	104
Spinaway Stakes, two-year-olds, 1 1/2 miles, 5 1-2 furlongs	160	113
Travers Stakes, 3-year-olds, 1 1-8 miles	74	53
Kenner Stakes, 3-year-olds, 1 1-4 miles	72	55
Alabama Stakes, 3-year-olds, fillies, 1 1-8 miles	43	38
Total	861	563

This fine showing is exceedingly gratifying to the officials of the Saratoga Association and is a significant presage of grand racing at the Spa next year. In the list of owners Arthur Featherstone leads with a total of 51 nominations closely followed by J. B. Haggin with 50. Other liberal nominators were J. E. Madden, 39; W. C. Whitney, 36; The Pepper Stable, 34; J. W. Schorr, 25; J. R. & F. P. Keane, 21; S. S. Brown, 21; G. B. Morris, 20; August Belmont, 18; Burns & Waterhouse, 15; M. F. Dwyer, 16; P. J. Dwyer, 16; Julius Fleischmann, 14; James R. Keene, 17; J. J. McCafferty, 17; F. C. McLewee & Co., 16; E. J. Baldwin, 12; Barney Schreiber, 12; J. E. Seagram, 11; W. K. Vanderbilt, 12; M. H. Tichenor, 10; R. T. Wilson, Jr., 13; G. C. Bennett & Co., 12, and M. Finlen & Son, 13. Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt's debut as a nominating turfman is an interesting feature and if he becomes thoroughly interested in the sport it is more than probable that he will build up one of the great stables of the country in the course of the next few years.

As indicative of what may be expected in the way of three-year-olds next year, the entries to the Travers are given below, attention being directed to the formidable seven nominated by Mr. William C. Whitney:

The Travers, of $10,000.—By subscription of $100 each, or $50 if declared by June 1, 1902. Starters to pay $150 additional. To the winner $7,000, to the second $2,000, and to the third $1,000. Winners in 1902 of two races of the value of $2,500 each, or of one of $5,000, to carry 3 pounds extra. Non-winners of $2,000 in 1902 allowed 10 pounds; of $1,000, 15 pounds. One mile and a furlong.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

An eastern paper, commenting on jockey Shea's temporary suspension last Wednesday at Benning, has this to say:

"The incident of the day outside the racing was the suspension of jockey Shea for the balance of the week. Shea rode Flying Buttress in the second race. The last time Flying Buttress ran he showed a lot of speed and ran a very fair race. He was plunged upon today and just managed to finish inside the money. Colonel Bill, the second choice, was the winner. Colonel Bill's last race was very bad. Consequently Flying Buttress was thought good enough to hold everything safe. Colonel Bill had his speed with him today, and little Shea, in his anxiety to close ground, bungled a little, and so brought down upon his head the wrath of the stewards. After the race the stewards called Tom Healey into the stand and asked him what he thought of the ride.

"I bet on the colt," said Healey, "and I'm satisfied the boy did the best he could."

"Shea was then called up and he said he did his best. The stewards thereupon decided to suspend Shea for the remainder of the week. The decision was received with derision by people who understood the facts in the case. It is a matter of record, to be proven by the sheets of the layers, that Tom Healey had one of his largest bets of the meeting on Flying Buttress. The stewards by suspending Shea for a bad ride intimate that the boy did not try to win. In view of the fact that Healey had a very swell bet down, that he advised all his friends to bet, and that men close to him did actually bet on the colt, makes the decision of the stewards appear far fetched. If the boy did not ride an artistic finish it was because he could not. There was certainly nothing criminal. Shea has only blossomed as a rider within the last month or so. So far as bad rides are concerned, Redfern and Cochran have put up some remarkable exhibitions and have escaped official notice."

Captain R. R. Rice has been meeting with ill luck recently. His saloon at Verner, Ark., was burned on November 18. He has not done well since he took Wax Taper east last May. He came up the line with a strong and most expensive stable. Fred Hessig, a grand looking son of Hanover, went wrong. Curd Gillock, who was a good two-year-old, became no account. Bendora, more than an average two-year-old, was not right until late in the season. Rochester, Hengist and other expensive horses, did not earn their salt. Probably the Captain's manager did not run up to form, but it was a bad season for him, even if Wax Taper was one of the best handicap horses of the year.

The San Francisco Examiner of November 19, in speaking of "Dick" Dwyer's work with the flag the first day he started at Oakland has this to say: "Dick" Dwyer did his first starting at the Oakland track yesterday and he had some bad luck at the very beginning. The initial send-off was not a good one, but all the others were very nearly perfect. It is a little early in the season, perhaps, to be boastful, but there are few who will dispute the statement that California has now the two best starters in America working here. If men like Dwyer and Holtman were to manipulate the gate at New York there would be fewer criticisms of the no recall system and less demand for its abolishment."

J. Naglee Burk, says the San Francisco Chronicle, will retire permanently from the turf. The yearlings and two and three-year-olds were sold last Thursday at the Occidental Horse Exchange. The stallions and brood mares will go under the hammer next Tuesday.

Winner—B. g. by Apache—Juanita. Went to post at 2:15. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same. Ned Dennis was easily best in the going, lucky and skilfully ridden. He is steadily improving. Searchlight ran a speedy and game race. Lou Clieveden showed early speed but quit badly. Canejo closed a big gap under a poor ride. Blanche Sheppard was practically left.

Scratched—29431 Bonitary, 99. Overweights—Ned Dennis, 1 pound; Searchlight, 2; Lou Clieveden, 4; Blanche Sheppard, 2. Ned Dennis, show, 3 to 5. Searchlight, show, evens. Lou Clieveden, show, 2 to 1. Mac Flecknoe, show, 3 to 5. Blanche Sheppard, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 26, 52, 1:17, 1:46.

Winner—Br. g. by Duncombe—Atalanta II. Went to post at 2:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Billy Moore ran to his best form and was lucky to beat the badly ridden El Oriente, which lost six lengths by a wide stretch turn. Koenig was in the worst going, but showed speed and hung on well. Morinel finished well after being outrun in the early stages. Alas showed early speed, but quit badly.

Overweights—Koenig, 2 pounds; Morinel, 3. Billy Moore, show, out. El Oriente, show, out. Koenig, show, 4 to 5.

Time. 1:13.

Time, 1:13.

Winner—Ch. c. by Linden—Peninah. Went to post at 3:06. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Commissioner Forster made up much ground and ran in much improved form. It was a strong finish by Woods that won for him. St. Sever, a fine looker, was shut off in the stretch. He was best and finished strongly. Prestano went well throughout and was favored by the going. Sir Lewis was outrun to the stretch and is evidently moderate. Botany was badly handled, but showed much speed and finished gamely.

Scratched—29448 Montoya, 100; 29432 Prestene, 100. Overweights—Sir Lewis, 5 pounds; Botany, 2; Bendora, 5. Commissioner Forster, show, 3 to 2. St. Sever, 2 to 5. Prestano, show, evens. Sir Lewis, show, 1 to 3.

Time, 26, 51, 1:17, 1:44.

Winner—Ch. c. by Star Ruby—Bedotte. Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Bedock drew to the front on the stretch turn with a brilliant burst of speed and ran in remarkably improved form and is developing into a good one. Sea Lion appeared to be beaten on the stretch turn, but came again at the end and finished strongly. Obia finished fast after being apparently outrun to the stretch. El Rio Shannon tired badly in the stretch after appearing to be the winner and going under restraint for six furlongs. Rubicon is crippled, but may train on. He was pulled up when hopelessly beaten.

Scratched—(29490) Articulate, 118. Overweights—Bedock, 2 pounds; Sea Lion, 1; Rubicon, 2. No show betting on first four.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey J. Woods, Schorr's crack rider, is doing some clever work at Frisco. He and O'Connor will probably have a close tilt of it for premier saddle honors at the coast this year.

Commissioner Forster, which showed some fair races in the mud here this year, won a good race in the soft going at Oakland yesterday at odds of 8 to 1.

Joe Scherrer, who rode in Germany the past season, is in California as the manager of Harry Spencer, who is making weight around 112 pounds.

Jockey James Boland will ride at the Charleston meeting.

29499²BERNATO 3 97 Left at the post. Birkenruth Burns & Waterh'ee 1 6-5 6-5 2-5
Time, 25.49, 1:17.
Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—Miss Ford.
Went to post at 3:55. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Norford appeared big and high in flesh, but finished strongly under an energetic ride and won a lucky race. Bullman persevered and finally caught Norford easing up and tiring right at the end. Norford showed a fine burst of early speed, but failed to stay. Orleans suffered from weak handling by an inexperienced jockey.
Overweights—Norford, 4 pounds; Educate, 2.
No show betting.

29540 SIXTH RACE—5 1-2 Furlongs. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. g. by Iroquois—Nellie Grand.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Native outclassed his field in the going, showed much speed and was lucky throughout. He has very bad legs. Tiburon ran extra well next to the rail in the worst going, showed brilliant speed and finished strongly. Midnight Chimes finished fast. Mocorito was short but has worked very fast. Clarando ran his race. Prejudice was nearly left. Reina de Cuba was prominent for a half then quit badly. No fractional time could be taken because of dense fog.

Winner—B. g. by Charaxes—The Alarm Bell.
Went to post at 2:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Death is a consistent performer. He was fortunate at the start and was cleverly handled. Jerry Hunt was speedy and got off flying, but tired when strongly challenged. Curtsey finished fast. Lexington Pirate could not stand the pace and quit. The race should improve Briek, which was none too well ridden. Tour was in several pockets and his race should be thrown out. Wellesley was shut out at the start.

Winner—Br. f. by Iroquois—Bessie K.
Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Wild Bess got off flying and showed the most speed throughout. Chiron was heavily backed and ran a good race, but lacked speed at the end. Borecourt ran a fairly good race only. Sinecure showed speed, but quit when hard pressed. Augury showed early speed. Theoth did not run to her form. The last three were crowded out at the start.

Winner—Ch. h. by Farandole—Jennie S.
Went to post at 2:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Raffello showed quick improvement, but was the best class horse in the race. He showed his old-time form by running around the field and finishing gamely under a hard drive. He was worked out six furlongs farther. Gray Dally finished fast and should have won with a capable ride, but Henderson could not get through in time. Kalif was given an easy ride. Michaels seemingly never made a move with him until Prince Richard was beaten. The latter ran his race and is over rated. Barbetto, Einus and Kingstella showed early speed.

Winner—Br. c. by Free Knight—Nilet.
Went to post at 3:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. It was a case of the survival of the fittest from the sixteenth post home and Last Knight lasted the longest. Hans Wagner, outrun early, made up ground in the last eighth but was none too vigorously ridden and Booker was evidently waiting on Carroll D. The latter displayed improvement but the route was too far for him. Misleader ran way below his best form.

Winner—Ch. f. by Tom Paxton—Helen Bancroft.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won ridden out; second easily. Philma Paxton ran a good race, making up much ground and finishing strongly but Wool Gatherer would probably have won with an even break. He made up a lot of ground from a bad beginning. Garter Ban did fairly well and with a more vigorous ride would have been closer up. Bawk showed early speed and improves with each race. Carlovigian will bear watching. His race was a good one for seven furlongs.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. The race was run to suit Alfred Vargrave, the hot pace wearing out Potente and leaving Ohnet nothing to finish with when Alfred Vargrave challenged. The latter is a good stretch runner and finished in his usual game manner, but was all out at the end. Ohnet was best, but was ridden with poor judgment. Potente was overweighted.

MR. WHITNEY LEASES RANCOCAS.

William C. Whitney will not buy the Rancocas Stock Farm from Mrs. Lillian Barnes Allen, for it is not for sale, but he has acquired control of the property for a term of years and intends making an experiment which will determine whether a New Jersey farm can turn out a racing thoroughbred of as high a

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Dispatches from the east say that Trainer John Huggins is anxious to have Mr. Whitney try again next year for the Derby, the blue ribbon of the English turf, and it is understood that a little persuasion from the trainer will make the millionaire consent. There is a chance that Nasturtium may be sent over to take part in this classic, but Mr. Whitney has not as yet made up his mind to ship the great two-year-old.

When Huggins returns to England he will have in his charge the Derby winner, Volodyovski, and the yearlings which Mr. Whitney has leased from Lady Meux and whatever other horses may be sent over from here.

Mr. J. Harding, Brookwood Stud, Pleasureville, Ky., sold last week to G. B. Walters, Brooklyn, N. Y., the following yearlings:

Silver Trinket, ch. f, by Silvermine—Mandrolina, by Fonso.

Silver Dell, ch. f, by Silvermine—Henniree, by Luke Blackburn.

Adele Harding, ch. f, by Silvermine—Idaho, by Iroquois.

Major Downe, br. c, by Silvermine—Spinaway II., by Powhattan.

Charlotte Newman, b. f, by Gov. Foraker—Siby II., by Lelaps.

Mr. A. Johnson, the turf name of a well known St. Louis sportsman, owner of Brulare and other cracks, has engaged jockey Beauchamp to ride for him next season in St. Louis. Beauchamp will remain in Louisville all winter. He recently furnished a house there and sent for his wife and baby. The sum he is to receive from Mr. Johnson is $3,500 as a retaining fee, besides the usual jockey fee. This should make the rider's earnings at least $10,000 for the season's work. Beauchamp, although by no means a star, can ride a "mean" race when he wants to. As there may be no Wonderlys, Cochrans, Redforns or O'Connors seen in the saddle at either Delmar or the Fair Grounds, Beauchamp should have no trouble in making good, especially when riding Mr. Johnson's horses. Mr. Johnson is at present on a tour of Kentucky and other breeding establishments with his friend Mr. Darden. The engagement of Beauchamp and Mr. Johnson's present tour means that the latter will have a large and first-class stable running about St. Louis.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1901 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1900; four handicapping systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, track records of all the recognized tracks of the country, the western and eastern scales of weights, tables showing the comparative speed of tracks, a complete list of pugilistic contests of 1900 of any consequence, trotting and pacing records at all distances and a list of the new 2:15 trotters of 1900. Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the number of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.
